technorium – this to do with the empty churches!*

Poetic Parloir Christmas special 2012

Prolog

Present day is in an Economic Crisis,
- besieged by a gloomy star.

Daily we abide the prophecies
of the three wise guys,
- interpreters of the dark sky.

They preach of Dow Jones,
economic growth and oil prices

These are the idols of a lost mankind, exposing something far worse,
- a Spiritual Crisis.
